

Introducing

Jennifer M Ryan, artist poet and author, paints moments in time – feelings, thoughts, hopes, dreams. She treasures experiences and moments passed that cannot ever be again.

Sitting on the edge of anything is fun.
Especially when you are creative.

From the Heart

When the message is personal
And, mass media cards & memes
just don't work

Appropriate artworks,
created with a social conscience,
can say much more

That's What I Create

You know how ...

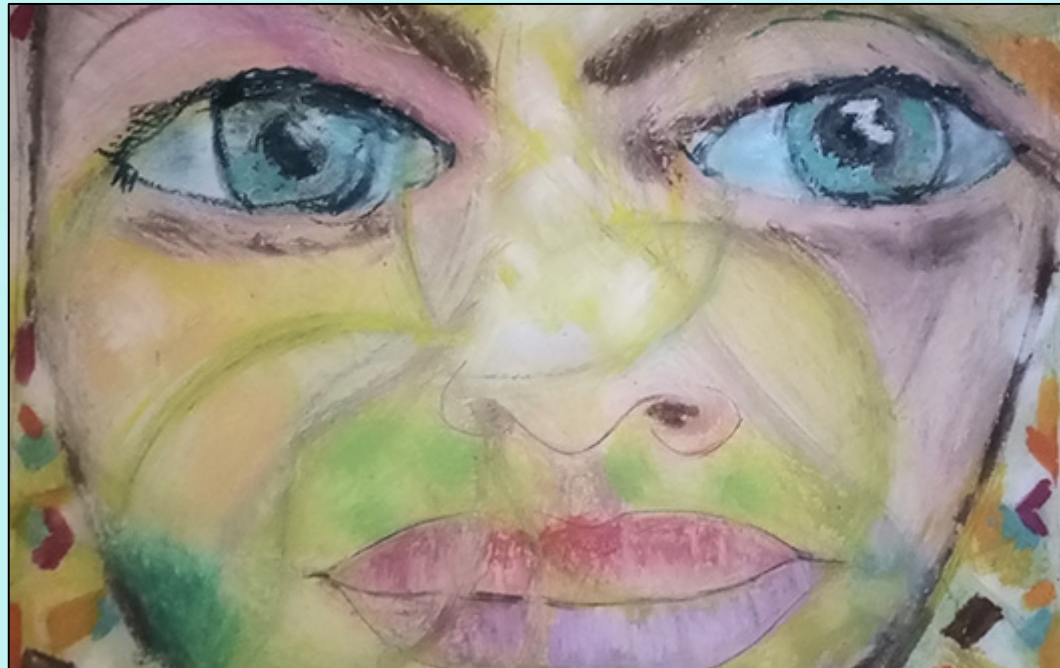

Communicating your feelings
can be hard

Well, what we do is ...

help you communicate your feelings in ways that really work

We know that ...

pictures speak a 1000 words

because they connect to more than just what we see.

Images connect to our emotions and our senses.

We know that ...

pictures speak a 1000 words

because they connect to more than just what we see.

Images connect to our emotions and our senses.

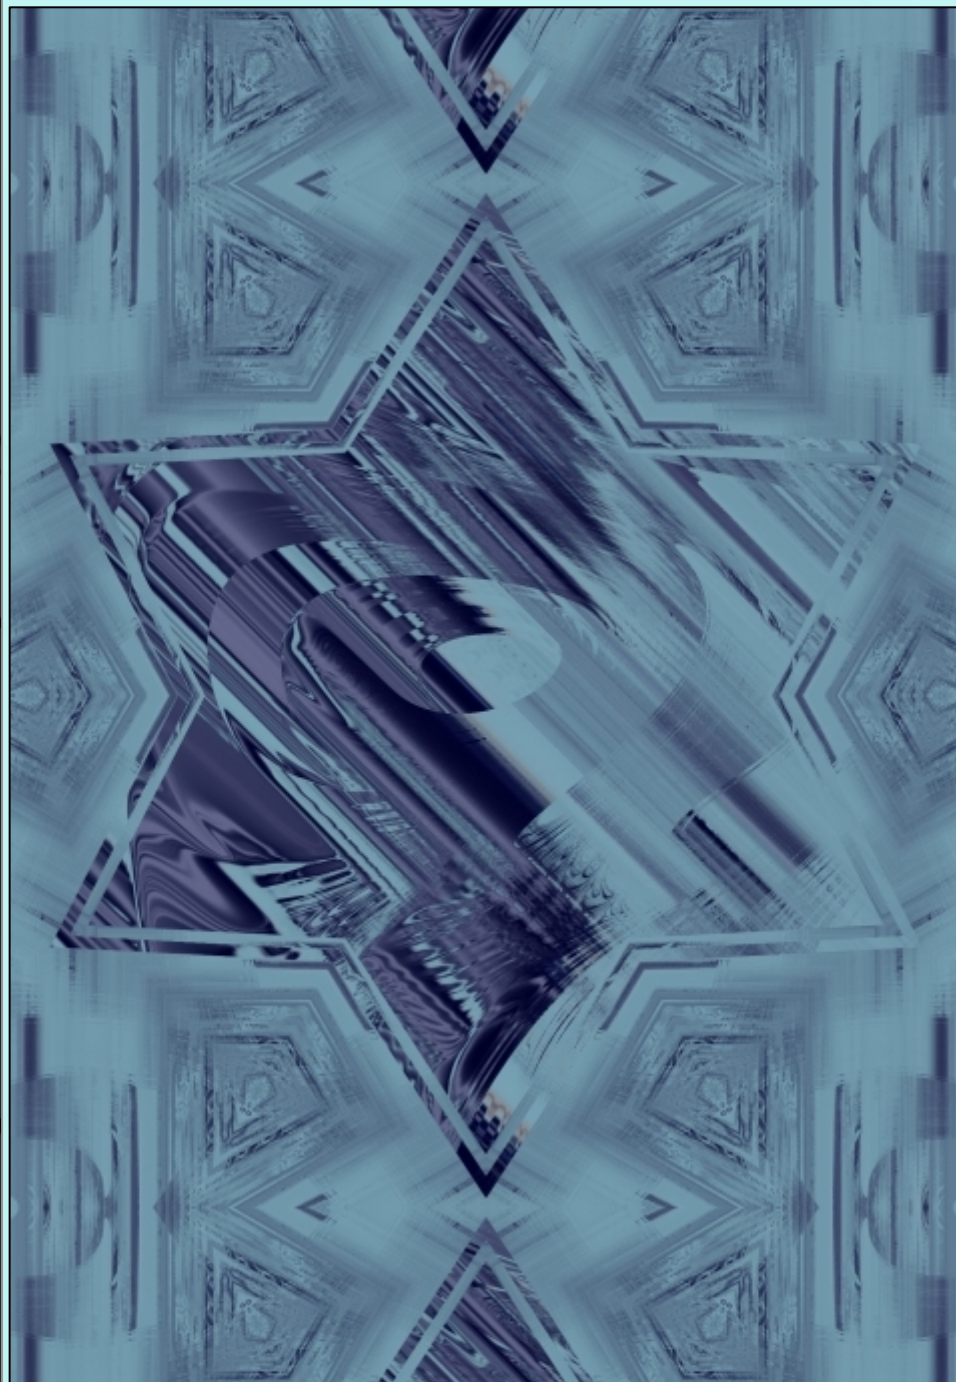

Pictures Speak...

pictures speak a 1000 words

because they connect to more than just what we see.

Images connect to our emotions and our senses.

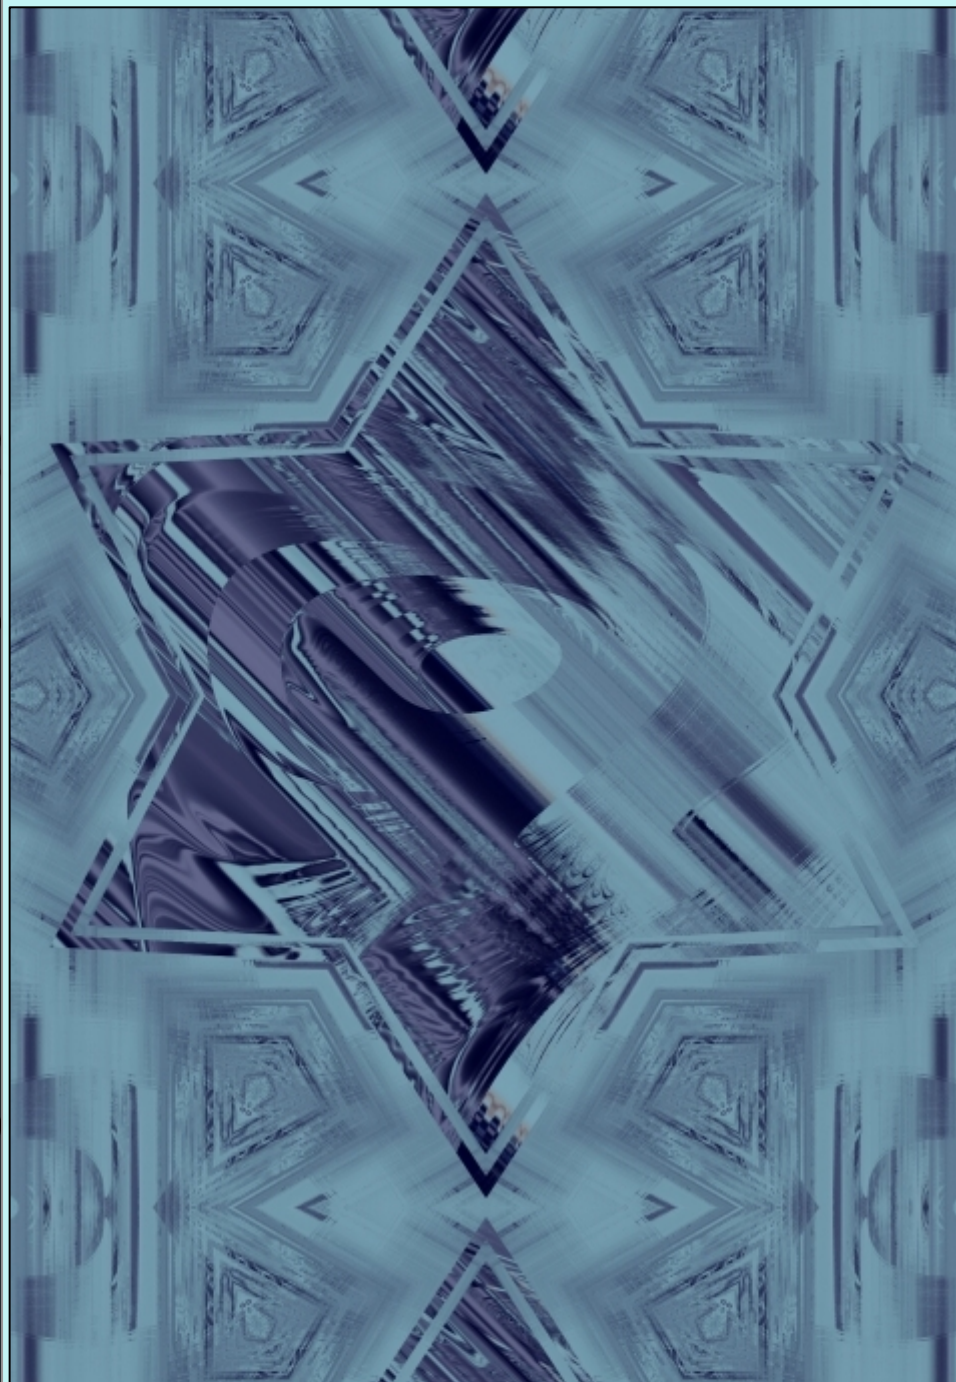

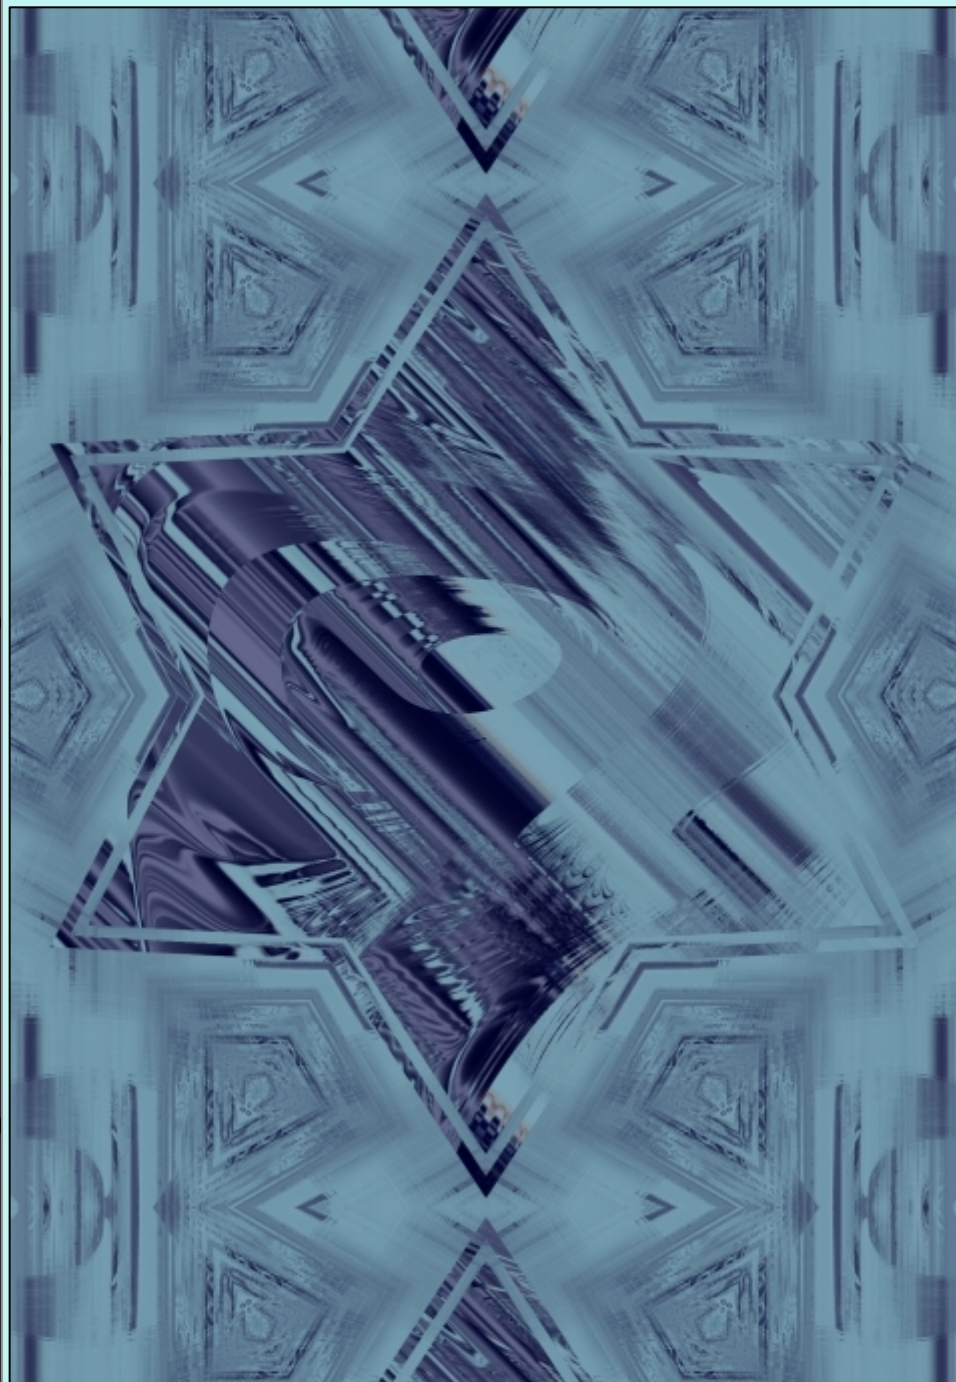

Pictures
Speak ..

because

they connect to more than just what we see.

They connect to
our emotions
and
our senses.
